'Great King of Gods'
Verse anthems with consort accompaniment are one of the neglected glories of English Reformation music. Their poetry and rhetoric is here vividly presented by the expert voices of Magdalena Consort - Catherine King, Charles Daniel, Hugo Hymas & Simon Gallear, directed by Peter Harvey and majestically complemented by England's leading early brass ensemble.

7. Piva
17:30 – 18:45 All Saints' Church

'Measure for Measure – Music from Shakespeare's Time
This popular show has been developed to celebrate the 400th anniversary of William Shakespeare's death in 2016. Shakespeare wrote for all of society – from the courtiers who paid handsomely for the best seats in the theatre through to the servants paying a penny to stand as groundlings in the pit.
Piva will be reflecting this by performing pieces, which run the gamut from village green to stately court and rowdy tavern to country house. As with any Piva show, they bring the period alive with stories and tales about life in Shakespeare's theatre.
Tickets £12 The Early Music Shop: 01274 288100

8. Michala Petri with Lars Hannibal
19:45 – 21:45 St Margaret's Church

Virtuoso Baroque
Celebrating the 25th anniversary of the Petri/Hannibal Duo, it is only fitting that Michala and Hannibal have decided to return to their roots as one of the preeminent early music duos, and have selected a truly Baroque programme - in every sense of the word. More than a mere programme of showstoppers, they have used their talents to hold up a mirror to our own time and redefine masterworks that will both delight their fans and invite all of us to listen to these astonishing works with new ears.
Tickets £20

12. European Union Baroque Orchestra
19:45 – 21:45 St Margaret's Church

'Handel and his London Colleagues'
"full of science, originality and fire" (Charles Burney)
The dynamic and youthful musicians of EUBO, from all over Europe, will be joined by the young prize-winning recorder player from Belgium, Jan Van Hoecke, to perform under the inspiring direction of Lars Ulrik Mortensen, a programme combining late baroque style with the emerging classical style including Recorder Concertos by Sammartini and Babell.

NEW VENUE

Regular visitors to the festival and exhibition will already be aware that the Painted Hall Conservation Project, at the Old Royal Naval College has now begun and therefore our usual exhibition venue will be out of commission for at least an 18 month period.

Our new venue for 2016 is 'Blackheath Halls', a beautiful listed building, built in 1895. It is located just a mile away from the Old Royal Naval College site in nearby Blackheath village, easily accessible by mainline trains or by car. Blackheath village also boasts a wealth of fine restaurants, bars and shops.

Fringe events, maker's demonstration recitals and formal evening concerts will take place at nearby churches: St Michael & All Angels, All Saints', and St Margaret's all within a few minutes walking distance from Blackheath Halls.

Please note there is a £1.50 booking fee for transactions made online or by telephone. There is no fee for booking at the Box Office in person.
